PREAMBLE

The Preamble is the beginning of our Constitution.

We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

BILL

There is a long path to becoming a law. First the people of a state decide that a new law is needed. These citizens then talk to their local congressman or woman who writes this new law down.

Then he or she takes this bill to Congress where each congressperson gets to vote on whether this new law is needed.

If Congress decides that this new law is needed the bill then goes to the House of Representatives.

And Finally if they vote yes to this bill, it will get to go all the way to the President to be signed into a law!

Activity: Name and discuss the three branches of government.

Hint– One is called the Executive Branch and includes the President!
