

CAMP SHOWBIZ

Our story-based camps teach children how to flex their creative writing muscles. Campers learn how to create a story of their own making, with fellow campers as their team. New friends are encouraged to cheer one another on and collaborate, creating an atmosphere that's supportive and fun. Trained theatre professionals help bring out the special talents unique to each child and work with professional costumes, props, and sound equipment to put on a dazzling showcase - and in two short weeks, make Magik happen.

Your little star's personality will shine through as they build the confidence and skills to stand out onstage, leaving them with a feeling of achievement that will stay with them long after the curtain comes down.

"Camp helped our kids tremendously with confidence and has given them a great outlet for creativity."
