It's Your Time to Shine!

Music 117.103.b.1A

Below is a monologue inspired by Jack and the Beanstalk. A monologue is a speech given by 1 actor or actress. Find a place in the monologue to use each of your 3 voices: singing, speaking, and whispering.

"Ah, yes. I know how you feel. I've been traveling the world since I was a child... Had to say goodbye to everyone I ever met. I once took a bus through Turkey...I sat next to man who tried to sell me a toe. Had to say goodbye to him too... Ah, yes. I think I could offer you something to make you feel better. How about some beans? Magic beans!"

We're Growing Our Vocabulary!

What is Jack and the Beanstalk?

Jack and the Beanstalk is a Folk tale. A folk tale is a story that has been passed down for hundreds of years. These stories are often spoken aloud and are told to teach a lesson. The story of Jack and the Beanstalk has been told for over 1,000 years! Jack teaches us how to be good friends, why we should be thankful for what we have, and to always be kind to strangers.

It's Time to Act Like an Englishman!

Fine Arts 117.113B,1D

Have you ever thought about what it would be like to be in a folk tale? Imagine what it would be like if you had the opportunity to go up a magical beanstalk to world full of giants and treasures! What would you do first?

Would you track down the special goose? Would you steal golden treasures to take back to your family? Would you hunt down giants or make friends with them?

What would you do in a Giant's World?

Create a video at home or work with friends in the classroom to create your own Giant Universe! Make sure to use your emotions, actions, and think about the environment around you!

"Gold I seek, and so I rise, leaf after leaf,
way up to the skies!"

ELA 110.5.B.7E

When Jack was climbing up the beanstalk for the first time, Jack realized he was afraid of heights and felt dizzy! However, Jack kept climbing until he got to the very top! Think about a time you were afraid but everything turned out just fine. Set a timer for 10 minutes and write about it!

Make sure to follow the free writing rules:

Write until the timer goes off

There are no bad ideas

Be as creative as you can

Use descriptive words
